

Galway Rape Crisis Centre Fundraising Principles

The Galway Rape Crisis Centre relies on the generosity of the people of Galway to continue to provide and expand our core services. We are extremely grateful to all our donors for their support and generosity. We at the GRCC are fully committed to the principles set out in the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising set out by ICTR which is a membership organisation of charities, focused on creating a policy climate in which philanthropy can thrive - through a combination of taxation and regulatory reform. Further information about the ICTR can be found at <http://www.ictr.ie>

- The GRCC considers the ICTR Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising when planning our fundraising activities.
- The GRCC has a Donor Charter which is consistent with the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising which is available here.
- We regularly monitor the Statement of Guiding Principles and provide the Board of the GRCC with regular updates and reports regarding our compliance.
- We commit to providing honest, open and transparent information and communications when raising funds from the public.
- The GRCC has appointed a member of the GRCC Executive Board and a senior member of staff to be responsible for compliance with the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising.
- The GRCC ensures that fundraising staff are provided with information and training on the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising and its implementation.

- The GRCC has a feedback and complaints procedure consistent with the Statement of Guiding Principles for fundraising.

..